CURATED FOR YOU BY ORCA TRAVEL COLLECTION

WELCOME TO PASO ROBLES

Where the Central Coast slows down

Set in the rolling oak-dotted hills of northern San Luis Obispo County, roughly midway between San Francisco and Los Angeles, Paso Robles has grown from a ranching and almond town into one of California's most dynamic wine regions. Today more than two hundred wineries welcome guests, from family-run estates on winding back roads to stylish tasting rooms just steps from the historic downtown square.

Warm, sunny days give way to cool evenings, with some of the widest day-to-night temperature swings in the state. That rhythm, together with chalky, calcareous soils in the western hills, helps the region's grapes keep their freshness. The appellation is divided into eleven distinct districts, each with its own character to explore.

Expect bold Cabernet Sauvignon, generous Rhône-style reds and whites built on Syrah, Grenache and Mourvèdre, and heritage Zinfandel that dates back to the area's earliest plantings. The pace is relaxed, the welcome is personal, and the views are part of the pour.

At a glance

SIGNATURE WINES

Cabernet Sauvignon, Rhône blends (Syrah, Grenache, Mourvèdre) and Zinfandel

GETTING THERE

Along US-101 on California's Central Coast, roughly three to three-and-a-half hours by car from San Francisco or Los Angeles

WHEN TO GO

Spring bloom and autumn harvest are especially lovely; summers are hot, so plan tastings for the morning

PLAN AHEAD

Many estates welcome walk-ins, but weekends and small producers are best booked in advance

Each winery card includes a QR code. Scan it with your phone camera to book a tasting or visit the winery's website. Hours and policies change, so please confirm before you go.
