A curated guide to old-vine country east of the Bay

WELCOME TO BRENTWOOD

Old vines in sandy soils

On the eastern edge of Contra Costa County, where suburbs give way to orchards and the Delta, Brentwood and Oakley are known for farm stands, U-pick fruit in season and a handful of small wineries.

The area's deep, sandy soils have long hosted old, head-trained vineyards of Zinfandel, Carignane and Mourvèdre. Many of these heritage grapes are sought after by winemakers elsewhere in California, while local producers pour them close to home.
