Calistoga
Napa Valley

A curated guide to wineries at the top of the valley

CURATED FOR YOU BY ORCA TRAVEL COLLECTION

WELCOME TO CALISTOGA

Hot springs and hillside Cabernet

At the northern tip of Napa Valley, Calistoga has been a getaway since the 1800s, famous for its hot springs and mud baths. Its small-town main street, framed by Mount St. Helena and the Palisades, feels more relaxed than the busier towns to the south.

Calistoga is among the warmest parts of the valley, and its volcanic soils produce powerful, structured reds. Cabernet Sauvignon leads, with Zinfandel, Petite Sirah and Rhône varieties also at home, poured at estates that range from intimate to grand.
